

- ◇ This virtual workshop is open to all who have formed, or may form their family through adoption, guardianship, or foster care and their extended support system, and to the professionals who work with them.
- ◇ Participants will increase their fluency with LGBTQ+ inclusive concepts, terminology, and practices; and identify specific opportunities for, and challenges to, inclusivity and the unique issues for children who join their families through adoption, guardianship, kinship, or are in foster care.
- ◇ Together we will learn and practice approaches for making our homes and community environments affirming and supportive
